

BURLINGTON FREE PRESS, FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 28, 1847.

JOHN S. WARE,
Storage and Forwarding Merchant,
NORTH WHARF,
BURLINGTON, V.T.

RECEIVER: J. J. H. PECK & CO, Burlington.
VILAS & NOYES, Burlington.

The North Wharf offers every facility for the safe keeping and prompt delivery of freights, and all business is referred to the care of J. S. WARE shall receive prompt attention.

The Steam Proprietor, James H. Hooker, the Steamer Burlington, which has been built for the removal of oil and other articles, and the different lines of long boats and vessels carrying freight on Lake Champlain touch at this Wharf.

126 fm

NORTHERN
TRANSPORTATION LINE,
INSURED. [1847]

JAMES H. HOOKER and OTHERS, PROPRIETORS,
Forwards to and from Boston, New York, Albany,
Troy, Schenectady, Quebec, and all parts on the Lake Champlain, and the different landings on the Champlain canal.

The well known NORTHERN TRAN-

PORTATION LINE is prepared to transfer all kinds of property with the greatest care and despatch.

The new steam proprietor, JAMES H. HOOKER, of 350 ton burden, Capt.

STEPHEN H. HARRIS, of 100 ton burden, and the different lines of long boats and vessels carrying freight on Lake

Champlain touch at this Wharf.

126 fm

1847.

MERCHANTS' LINE.

LAKE BOATS

For the Transportation of Property Between

Lake Champlain, ALCBANY, NEW YORK & BOSTON.

The Proprietors of this Line will run during the month of JUNE SIXTEEN FIRST CLASS LAKE BOATS, and will carry all kinds of property, particularly Metropolis. Like most of the articles contributed to that highly scientific work, it was immediately called for in a separate form, and was in fact published separately in repeated editions, both in America and abroad, before its completion as a part of the Encyclopedia.

The price at which this great work is now offered is $12.00.

RICHARDSON'S ENGLISH DICTIONARY.

PRICE, $12.00.

</